

Suspensions

These products can be utilized when there is a need to hold some dry ingredients in suspension in the liquid mix.

Usually these ingredients are not necessarily soluble but need to be suspended in order to get them evenly dispersed in the ration. Along with dry ingredients such as calcium, cotton seed meal, etc. you can bring in vitamin and mineral packages as well along with any enzymes or ionophores that are needed or desired.